Dear Moya,

So much to do - so little time.....everyone's lament whether we are talking about knitting, weaving, or gardening this time of year. Hope you find time to pursue your fiberly addictions.

DYED HEATHER PRIME ALPACA

It's here! I now have some wonderful dyed alpaca that is the exact same weight & yardage as my prime alpaca in the naturals that everyone loves. I'm currently stocking 13 gorgeous colors. Click on the picture to see all of them!

SPECIAL PURCHASE - 12/2 RAYON on Cones

Sometimes I find great deals that I can pass along to my customers. This is one of them. This yarn is available in 50 or so colors and the put up is on cones weighing in at 1.25 - 2#. I'm selling these by the cone @ just $12 each! Machine Knitter? Weaver? Lace Knitter? Artyarn Spinner? so many possibilities! Obviously I can only sell as much as I have in stock. Let me know what YOU need!

FROM THE NEEDLES - BUTTERFLY SHAWL

Not my needles - but a great friend's!
This is an updated version of our Butterfly Poncho using Yarns of Distinction Island Cotton. It's a quick and easy project even for newbies. I've been told it's easily a weekend project using size 13 circular needles. Pattern is free when you purchase this yarn.

Please accept my apologies for the website shopping cart problems last month. I did my part, but my SSL supplier did not. Fortunately, several customers reported the problem so I could get it fixed.

Thank you for your continued support - I wouldn't be here without you!

Sincerely,

Barb Gallagher
